Decrees for Your School

You shall decree a thing and it shall be established

Nancy Huff

Decrees are powerful affirmations that move our faith to a level of prayer beyond begging and asking. Decrees allow us to speak God’s Word over a school to change the atmosphere for the Kingdom of God.

Introduction

You wouldn't have picked up this little book if you were not concerned about America's schools and the effect sub standard education is having on this nation's children, our economy, our families, and our government. Even our freedom is threatened because our schools are failing. Every year approximately 3,600,000 teens graduate from high school functionally illiterate. Everyone knows that America's educational system is in deep trouble. Schools continue to graduate teens that have non-functional reading skills, no knowledge of American history, and dismal math skills.

At this point, our only hope is for those of us who know how to intercede for our students, schools, and other educational organizations to decree God's Word over the Mountain of Education. The Word of God is powerful and will work in any situation, even our public schools.

But you are here! That's what is important. You have come to this place to make a difference in your school and ultimately in the Mountain of Education. You are a warrior. You are the one who will stand on the front lines of spiritual warfare and declare to the Mountain of Education that it has to move. And it will move!

Why Decrees?

Decrees are what I call “Ground Level Strategies” for conquering any situation. They take little effort, yet they are powerful and effective.

One of the most profound experiences I ever had speaking decrees to a mountain was in Israel in 2005. I stood at an Israeli outpost that overlooked the two mountains of Gerizim and Ebal, where Moses instructed the Israelites to be divided in two groups. Half of the tribes were to stand on Mount Ebal to pronounce curses for disobediences of God’s laws. The other half stood on Mount Gerizim to pronounce blessings (Deuteronomy 27:11–13). Nestled between Gerizim and Ebal is the ancient city of Shechem. The day I was there Shechem was under Israeli military observation for harboring a Hamas terrorist cell.

While an Israeli guide looked on, my friends Donna, Pat, and I made prophetic decrees by pronouncing the same blessing in the same location where Moses had instructed the Israelites to speak as recorded in Deuteronomy 28. We yelled the decrees out across the valley with our hands stretched toward Mount Ebal and Mount Gerizim. We then read Psalm 91 as a decree over Israel. As we made decrees and spoke the Word of God over the mountains and the valley, something happened in the realm of the Spirit. We felt the atmosphere change as if charged with negative ions. The smell became fresh. Something had been released in the Spirit.

The next day on CNN news, I happened to see a ticker run across the bottom of the screen. “Eleven terrorists captured in the city of Shechem in hiding behind a false toilet door.” I ran to tell my friends. We left the hotel immediately to find a copy of the Jerusalem Post, excited that the newspaper documented the answer to our decrees.

Did our prophetic decrees have anything to do with the capture of the terrorists? I believe they did. How many more adventures does God have for us if we will learn to go to strategic places, speak to mountains, and make prophetic decrees? Once you’ve seen a mountain move, something happens in your faith that will change you forever. You become a person of destiny, with spiritual strength, determined to root out the enemy. Nothing short of victory will ever satisfy. That day in Israel, I learned a lesson on how to take a mountain.

Jesus was explicit in His instructions to us when we face mountains of obstacles. He told us to SPEAK to mountains and they would move. He not only told us once but three times in the Gospels to speak to mountains. It’s a very important prayer strategy—one that is vastly underused.

Matthew 17:20–21—He replied, “Because you have so little faith. I tell you the truth, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you,” (emphasis mine).

God bless you as you decree God’s word over your local school. Stand firm in your confidence in the Word of God. You will not be disappointed.

The Word of God in your mouth will change your school and ultimately the entire

The Mountain of Education is a cultural mountain that includes not just schools, but every aspect of our educational system. Today the Educational Mountain is overwhelmingly failing our children. Over the past 60 years, despite spending more and more money on education, we have witnessed its decline as over 25 % of our seniors graduate functionally illiterate. Our math scores, compared to the rest of the developed countries, are dismal. Our children deserve better than a mediocre education.

Most of the solutions being offered by the experts do not benefit our students, but more often than not benefit administrators, text book publishers and school suppliers. Our Country's freedom depends on a well educated society. We need reform, and we need it now!

How do we reverse the downward slide in our schools? We are told in the book of Daniel that God gives us the ability to solve difficult problems (Daniel 5:16). In order to solve this situation, we start at the very basic level to pray for the whole Mountain of Education. Pray for solutions to this "difficult problem" and believe God for a turn around in America's schools. When the Word of God is spoken, there is an energy released in the atmosphere that changes circumstances and what was hopeless then becomes possible.
